—, ——, and —— Corps of —'s Army advanced to attack Lee.

7. Lee spent the night of April 6 - 6, 1865 at ——.

8. Gen. Joseph E. Johnston was born in —— County.

9. In what battle did Grant capture more men than were captured in any one day's field engagement of the war?——.

10. Cumberland Presbyterian Church was founded in——.

11. Grant spent the night of April 8, 1865, at ——.

12. Who was the only speaker of the Confederate House of Representatives? ——.

And so the questions went. You had to stop and read the historical markers along the retreat route to get the answers. And, with this quiz and other rules of the tour, went an award of three trophies to the car drivers with the best records.

But how about those cars!

We stared in open amazement as they arrived at Old Appomattox.

Here were several of the famous German cars the Volkswagen. One was a luxurious sedan, 1955 make, and a show item. Next was a Lancia Model of the Italian V-6. And a club member showed us over an Italian Fiat, a 1949 model, Carrazzerie Special, one of ten models make at that time, no two of which were alike.

Dr. Edwin Rucker, of Richmond, was in a Studeillac, and to show what a variety of professions were represented among those who go in for foreign make sports cars, there was the Rev. L. Lloyd Black, pastor of the Christian Church, Victoria, Va. He had conducted his church service at 11:00 A. M. Sunday, and then hastened to Richmond to participate in the caravan. He said, "I left my church at 12:07 and I was in Richmond ready for this trip at 1:20."

Then there was "Bill" Pettit, of Louisa. He is with his father in an automobile agency, but Bill says, "I let a hobby get out of hand." By getting out of hand, he means that he now has no less than 67 antique and classic cars. About half are in running shape. He is working on the others. One of his prizes is a 1904 Reo. Bill says he is looking for a spot in Virginia to build an antique and classic car museum for show purposes. Your reporter suggested Appomattox!

A prize car in the caravan was a German Mercedes. This is an internationally famous car, winner of countless speed trophies, and many gathered around the S-L-300 Mercedes here Sunday afternoon.

There were lots of Austin-Healeys in the group, and one special car was a German "Porcha." This car has the motor in the rear, and the model here was a slick white tear-drop that was 100% smartness.

National Park Service attendants made the visitors welcome, and the ideal weather conditions of the late afternoon, made the picnic dinner on the spacious grounds near the Old Tavern a colorful climax to a most unique project, and one that made Appomattox sit up and take notice.

COOPERATION

President Eisenhower, in a commencement address at Pennsylvania State University, renewed his plea for Soviet cooperation in an international program to "open a broad avenue to world progress" through the peaceful exploitation of atomic energy. He also proposed that the United States pay half of the cost of building experimental research reactors in friendly foreign countries.

Arms output appears to strain the Soviet economy.

WIND STUNTS

Atlanta, Ga.- A small whirlwind danced into Donald E. Maginnis's backyard, whipped a 100-pound boat he was building 60 feet into the air and wrecked it on Maginnis's back porch. Petals on rose bushes in the yard were unruffled.

JAMES CORRECTS A STATEMENT

It has come to my attention that the following statement was made before the Town election last Tuesday:

"That if a certain candidate for council was elected I said I would resign as Mayor."

I want to tell my friends that the statement is absolutely false and unjust, and that I am not going to resign, PERIOD.
